The righteous will flourish like a palm tree Psalm 92:12

January

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. God did not send his Son into the world to condemn it, but to save it.

John 3:16-17

February

God saved you by his special favor when you believed. And you can't take credit for this: it is a gift from God. Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done so none of us can boast about it. For we are God's masterpiece. He has credited us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

Ephesians 2:8-10

March

He is the one who gave these gifts to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ, until we come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature and full grown in the Lord, measuring up to the full stature of Christ. Ephesians 4:11-13

April

You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' All the other commandments and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.

I have been given complete authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.

July

You are the light of the world—like a city on a mountain, glowing in the night for all to see. Don't hide your light under a basket! Instead, put it on a stand and let it shine for all. In the same way, let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly father.

August

So the Word became human and lived here on earth among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness. And we have seen his glory, the glory of the only Son of the Father.

September

I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me because of their testimony. My prayer for all of them is that they will be one, just as you and I are one, Father—that just as you are in me and I am in you, so they will be in us, and the world will believe that you sent me.

Show mercy to those whose faith is wavering. Rescue others by snatching them from the slaves of judgment. There are still others to whom you need to show mercy, but be careful that you are not contaminated by their sins.

Bolivian Community Project

CCC La Palmera, Trinidad-Beni, Bolivia

The Bolivian Community Project (BCP) vision began by exploring a biblical understanding of community development as a way to enrich missionary work in its response to the wholeness of human needs. Our perception from Scriptures of the message of the Gospel as an opportunity for people “to change from a condition of human existence contrary to God’s purposes, to one in which people are able to enjoy fullness of life in harmony with their Creator”, explains, even beyond expectations, the existence of “La Palmera” Christian Cultural Center (CCC) in one of the poorest cities of one of the poorest countries of the world.

Two biblical distinctives have been particularly important for us: Incarnation & Sacrifice. Incarnation has helped us to take present worldwide conditions and our post-modern society seriously, and engage in missionary work as a team, as a body, as the church—not just as individual Christians. Sacrifice, the climax of the mission of our Lord Jesus on the cross, has been the criteria to evaluate our commitment to serve others with no personal, social or cultural demands, conditions or impositions. This focus has saved us from the mistakes, prejudices and stereotypes of some Christian cultures which could lead us away from the central concerns of God’s will for humanity.

Because BCP and “La Palmera” CCC are part of the missionary generation that has made the statement “THE WHOLE GOSPEL FOR THE WHOLE PERSON”, we are also the ones who wrestle with Scriptures in searching for the Biblical path of obedience. We put this calendar in the hands of our prayer supporters, sponsors and donors with the hope that you will be encouraged to join us in intercession and practical support throughout this whole year. Each day you have the opportunity to pray for an individual and join with us in the pursuit of many practical expressions of Christian care for the marginalized and vulnerable. As it is written “He has dispersed abroad, he has given to the poor: His righteousness endures forever”.
